

Is the Bible God's Word?

The Bible declares itself to be the word of God, preserved by God so we can know what He wants us to know about Him. We use and recommend the King James Version for Bible study. If you do not have a King James Version, use the Bible you have available. To discover how the Bible describes itself, look up the verses and fill in the blanks.

According to Jesus not even the smallest part of a Hebrew letter will pass away till ____ is _____. Everything in the Bible is true and trustworthy and will happen just like the Bible says.

If Jesus was teaching us in English today, He would say it this way: "In the Bible every dot on an i and every crossbar on a t will be fulfilled."

That is Jesus' way of pointing out that every letter and every word in the Bible is true and trustworthy. Jesus believed all of the Bible is true (Luke 24:25) and as His disciples we should believe what Jesus believed about the Bible.

2 Timothy 3:16. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God" can also be translated this way: "All scripture is God-breathed." How much of the Bible is God-breathed? _____

Whenever we speak we breathe out words. Try holding your breath and speaking at the same time. Can you do it?

2 Timothy 3:16 tells us God breathed out the words of scripture. "All s_____ is God-breathed" and this means the whole Bible is God-breathed. The whole Bible is God's words. "For the _____ of the _____ hath _____ it." Isaiah 40:5. Compare Psalm 33:6 where the expression "the _____ of the _____" is equivalent to the expression "the _____ of His _____."

"Hey! You just said that all Scripture is God-breathed and the whole Bible is the word of God. But I thought men like Moses, David, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Paul wrote the Bible. If it was written by men, how can the Bible be God's word?"

The answer is in 2 Peter 1:21: "For the _____ (the written word of God) came not in old time by the will of man, but _____ (like Moses, David and Paul) spoke as they were _____ by the Holy Ghost." So David wrote Psalm 23 as he was moved/led by God the Holy Spirit.

God intended David to write Psalm 23 even before David was born! The same is true about Jeremiah. God was preparing Jeremiah to be a prophet while he was still in his mother's _____, Jeremiah 1:5.

David grew up and became a shepherd who took care of his father's flocks. One day he realized how much taking care of sheep and goats every day was like the loving care and protection of the LORD for His people and David wrote: "The LORD is _____" Psalm 23:1. God the Holy Spirit moved David to write his Psalms in such a way that he wrote precisely the words God wanted him to write. David himself described the process of inspiration in 2 Samuel 23:2 – "The _____ of the _____ by _____, and His _____ was in _____ tongue." In this verse, David gives the credit to God. Whose word was in David's tongue? _____

How long will the word of God last? The Bible has the answer. Isaiah 40:8. "The word of our God shall stand _____."

Psalm 119:89. "For ever O LORD, _____ is settled in heaven."

Matthew 24:35. Jesus said: "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words _____."

1 Peter 1:23-25. "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by _____, which liveth and abideth _____...But the word of the Lord _____."
